Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of April 22, 1964, inquiring whether this Service possesses any further information not heretofore disclosed to the Commission regarding the associations of Lee Harvey Oswald.

All records of this Service pertaining to both Oswald and his wife Marina were contained in Mrs. Oswald's file, copies of which were previously furnished the Commission.

It is gratifying to know that this Service has been of some help in this matter.

Sincerely,
